6. Board Member Report by Shannon Leson. Kitchen renos will begin after the roof repairs are completed at CCS.
7. SRC Report – clothing orders are due
8. Old Business

1) Christmas Dinner, Raffle, Hamper – the dinner was a success and well received by almost 300 people. Thank you to Kellyanne for making so many meatballs, to Candace (and Linda) for using her kitchen to help cook perogies, the SCC members for cooking, volunteer parents and Crossroads Credit Union staff for serving plates and CCS staff for assisting through the morning and delivering meals to the elementary wing. The Christmas raffle profit was $4665. Thank you to everyone who supported this raffle. Hampers were made and delivered to 8 families on the last day of school using donated funds.

2) Kitchen – Spring Supper Fundraiser – planning should begin to host a supper towards the last week of April. Some beef may be donated by Stacy Wiebe (need to confirm) and we have some perogies left to use. We could use the beef as chili or beef on bun. Tracey to look into the Ukr. Cath Church hall and kitchen. Should be an advance ticket purchase and we can call upon volunteers to assist with preparing.

9. New Business

a) Grade 8/9 Pizza Parties – Candace will let us know when is a good time for these grades. We discussed perhaps ordering some Cheese pizza's from Triffons and some Pepperoni ones from Gabano's to split the business if possible.

b) Staff Appreciation– MOTION to spend $300 on combination of meat trays/buns/veggies/or cake for Staff Appreciation day on Feb 13/23 by Jill Craig/2nd by Lauren Mentanko. All in Favour, CARRIED. Jill will organize and deliver.

c) Bank Account – at next meeting we will be presented with an option for opening a second bank account to hold the raffle proceeds and any major fundraising dollars that we earmark for the kitchen accessories and expenses. This will allow us to track funds and do quick reporting as to available funds for these types of expenses.
